Case No.:

Chapter:

SSN/Tax ID:

Debtor(s)

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SUMMARY OF FINAL REPORT AND ACCOUNT, APPLICATION FOR COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES, APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES AND TRUSTEE'S REQUEST FOR SUBSTANTIVE CONSOLIDATION [if applicable]

TO THE DEBTOR(s), CREDITORS AND PARTIES IN INTEREST:

The final report and account of the Trustee in this case has been filed and a summary of the proposed distribution is attached to this notice.

The original motions/reports and any applications for compensation, which may contain more comprehensive information, are on file with the Clerk of Court and may be reviewed at this office during regular business hours. The Trustee's Final Report shows the following:

Total Receipts:	$ _____
Total disbursements (approval sought if no prior order)	$ _____
Balance to be Distributed:	$ _____

The following applications for compensation, for which Court approval is still necessary, have been filed:

Applicant	Type	Amount	Expenses
		$	$
		$	$
		$	$
		$	$

In addition to expenses of administration as may be allowed by the Court, claims secured by liens and claims entitled to priority must be paid in advance of any dividend to general creditors.

☐ [If box is checked:] You can be affected by a substantive consolidation. When estates are consolidated, the assets of the husband and the assets of the wife are treated as one pool of assets, to be shared in by all creditors even if a creditor is owed money only by the husband or only by the wife. Therefore, you may be affected positively or negatively. An overall advantage of consolidation is that it avoids disputes over the actual ownership of marital assets; the costs of such disputes could reduce the amounts available to all creditors.

☐ [If box is checked:] The Debtor(s) have been discharged.

_____, is fixed as the last date a creditor or other party in interest may file with the Court written objection to the actions proposed by the Trustee. A copy of the objection or request for hearing must be served upon the Trustee, the party whose application is being challenged and the U.S. Trustee. The Trustee will disburse funds of the above estate as described without further Order of the Court after this deadline has expired and no timely objections are filed. Upon the filing of a timely objection, a hearing will be scheduled by the Court and notice will be mailed only to the affected parties.

You are further advised that whether or not opposition to an application is filed, the Court will assess the application and will allow only such amounts as it deems reasonable.

PAUL R. WARREN
Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court
